(PRO SE persons must MAIL their memo instead of using the e-mail address.) Counsel will also furnish in their memorandum a good-faith estimate of the expense of carrying the litigation through trial and the appellate process, if not settled, and will have discussed these costs with their respective clients. These memoranda are not to be exchanged and will be viewed only by the Court. Further, these memoranda shall not be filed with the Clerk of Court. Do not mail a separate copy.

4. Review the parties' compliance with their disclosure obligations and consider whether to order additional disclosures;

6. Determine the plan for at least the first stage of discovery; impose limitations on each discovery tool, time periods and other appropriate matters;
7. Determine the date for the Local Rule 26(g) settlement conference or mediation; motions, the final pretrial conference and trial. The parties should be prepared to discuss prior conflicts with the trial date.

9. Verify that counsel are registered for electronic document filing and are familiar with the Administrative Procedures for Electronic Filing.

A Case Management Order shall be entered by the Court after the conference.
